Industry Experience Shapes Every Solution

NCI Global (New Century Integration)

NCI Global Pte. Ltd. is founded in Year 2020 by a team of experienced tank container and depot management professionals. Our founder and team bring industry experience dated back to 1987, with extensive expertise in ISO tank depot operations, repair and maintenance, tank and parts trading, and many other tank-related activities.

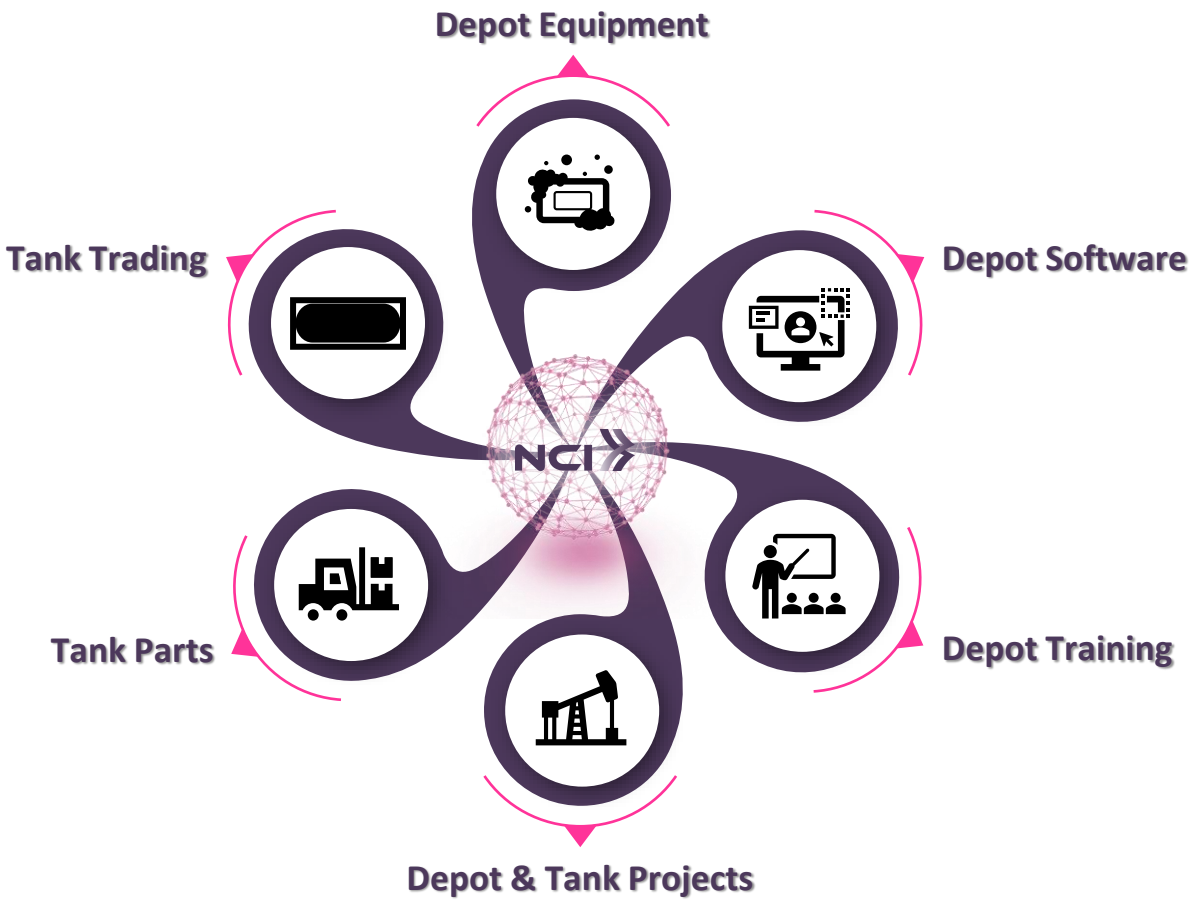

With our experience and technical expertise, we help both new and existing depots improve operational standards, efficiency safety while meeting applicable regulatory and industry requirements. We provide customised solutions tailored to each depot's operational needs – from equipment and software to training, tank modifications, depot development and process improvement.

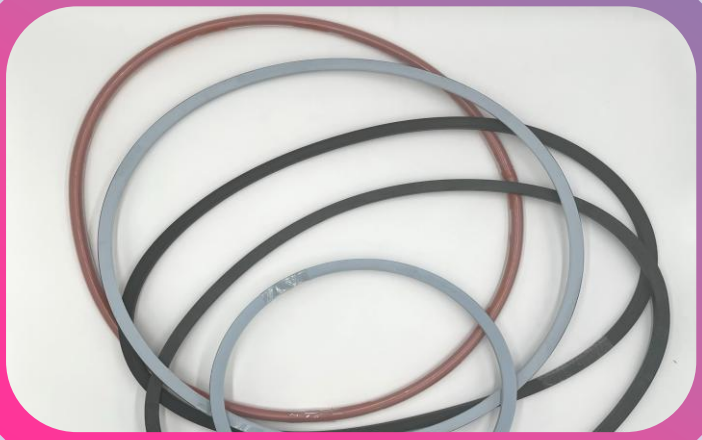

NCI Global supplies quality replacement parts, accessories and testing equipment for ISO tank containers, supported by our practical depot, maintenance and repair experience.

One Partner Across the Entire ISO Tank Depot Lifecycle

NCI Global combines technical expertise, operational experience and innovative solutions to help new and existing depots improve safety, efficiency and overall operational performance.
